Section A (Reading) (8 Marks)

Q1) Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

The Mango Tree

In a small village, there stood a large mango tree at the edge of a playground. Children would gather around it every afternoon after school. Some climbed its branches, while others sat under its cool shade, sharing stories or snacks. The tree was very old and had been there for many years. It gave sweet, juicy mangoes in the summer and shelter throughout the year.

One day, the village head announced that a new road would be built right through the playground. The children were sad to hear that the mango tree would have to be cut down. They wrote letters, made drawings, and even performed a small play to show how much the tree meant to them.

Their efforts touched the hearts of the villagers and the workers. Finally, the headman changed the plan and saved the tree by moving the road slightly. The children cheered, and the tree stood tall, spreading its green arms wide.
