

A. Answer these questions orally, as fast as you can.

1. Put these countries in the order in which they see the sunrise: India, Australia, UAE and Japan.
2. Besides the difference in speed, why does an aeroplane get to its destination faster than a train?
3. What can be turned into steam or ice?
4. What do most adult men have about five million of in/ on their bodies?
5. When dropped from the same height, which will bounce higher—a steel ball or a rubber ball?
6. In a book, are the pages on the right always even numbers?
7. Which months have 28 days?
8. How many issues of a fortnightly magazine are published in a year?
9. Why do we not get newspapers at home on the mornings of 27 January and 16 August in most cities and towns of India?
10. If the time is 1530 hrs in Mumbai, what time is it in Guwahati, Kanpur, Kochi and Dehradun?
11. In India, before crossing a street, should you first look right, then left, and finally right; or should you look left, then right, and finally left?

B. Fun time!

1. What can go around the world while staying in a corner?
2. What is usually black, white and 'read' all over?
3. Which is the longest word in the English language?
4. You carry me to school. I grow smaller as I grow older. What am I?
5. What goes up and never comes down?

Frame a question of your own that is similar to question A9, and ask it in class.