

Airports around the world have special codes. Unscramble the letters of the cities they are located in. Write their names on the blanks given. Then, choose the right option from the box. Match the national carriers or national airlines associated with these cities in the boxes given alongside.

Airport code City National carrier

- | | |
|--------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1. SYD (NEDSY) _____ | 7. FRA (TURFKRANF) _____ |
| 2. SIN (GAPORESIN) _____ | 8. FCO (MORE) _____ |
| 3. DAC (HAADK) _____ | 9. ATH (SHANET) _____ |
| 4. CMB (COOOLMB) _____ | 10. DXB (AIDBU) _____ |
| 5. CDG (SIPAR) _____ | 11. DEL (EWN HIDEL) _____ |
| 6. KHI (RACHIKA) _____ | 12. HND (KOOYT) _____ |

- | | |
|------------------------|------------------------------------|
| a. Singapore Airlines | b. Air India |
| c. Olympic Air | d. Biman Bangladesh Airlines |
| e. Sri Lankan Airlines | f. Pakistan International Airlines |
| g. Air France | h. Emirates |
| i. Qantas | j. Japan Airlines |
| k. Lufthansa | l. ITA Airways |

Listen and Talk

What do these terms mean?

- | | |
|-----------------------|------------------------|
| • Boarding pass | • Security check |
| • Final boarding call | • Low-cost carrier |
| • Immigration check | • International flight |
| • Domestic flight | • Check-in |

Did You Know?

A runway is the long, narrow strip of hard ground that an aircraft uses to takeoff and land.

