

GREAT INDIAN INSTITUTIONS

My India

Here is an oral quiz on some famous educational institutions in India.

1. Founded in 1715 in Madras (now Chennai), it is the oldest school in India. Name the school.
2. Founded by Major General Claude Martin, this school is of historical importance in India. It has branches in Lucknow, Kolkata and Lyon (in France). Name the school.
3. If you want to become an engineer, you could try and get into one of the IITs in India. What does IIT stand for?
4. In which city is the famous St Stephen's College located?
5. This group of schools is named after an industrialist who passed away in 1995. His son, Kumar Mangalam Birla, now heads the group. They have many schools spread across 11 states and educate more than 50,000 students. Name the school.
6. This school was one of the early co-educational institutions in India. It was founded by Satikanta Guha, a great educationist, and is now run by the M. P. Birla Foundation in Kolkata. It has about 13,000 students. Name the school.
7. If you go to Madras Christian College to study, which city would you be living in?
8. If you want to become a manager in a reputed company, you could try and get into one of the IIMs in India. What does IIM stand for?
9. This school has branches in Bengaluru, Delhi and Kolkata. It was founded by a famous Anglo-Indian lawyer after whom it is named. He was a Member of Parliament for more than 40 years. Name the school.
10. Founded in 1864, the Bishop's School now has three branches—Camp, Kalyani Nagar and UNDRI. In which city is it located?

Did you Know?

These are some of the most renowned school chains in India: Delhi Public School, Ryan International School, Don Bosco, Loreto, Carmel, St Xavier's, Army Public School, Air Force School, Navy Children's School, Kendriya Vidyalaya, Sunbeam, De Nobili and Birla schools.